NALOXONE INSTRUCTION SHEET

Using Naloxone

- Reverses opioid overdose
- Safe to use
- Works in 2–5 minutes
- May need more than one dose

How to respond to an overdose

1. Call 911

Tell them someone is not breathing.

2. Give naloxone

Do not test device.
Each device can only be used once.

Peel

Place
Lay person on their back and tilt their head up.

Press
Spray in one nostril by pushing plunger.

3. Recovery position

Place the person on their side to prevent choking.

4. Repeat

Give second dose if no response in two minutes.

5. Stay with the person

Wait until medical help arrives.

CENTRAL HEALTH